FINE BILL AT STAR.

This Week's Attractions Are Exceptionally Good—Large Attendance.

Mr. P. Gevurtz, the popular manager of the Star, has secured for this week's show, some of the finest feature acts ever presented in this city. The Dalvines magicians are exceptionally good and the work of the Long & Mitchell, comedy sketch team, is far above the standard. Stuth and Stuth present an entirely original act in the way of plate whirling.

Mr. Fred Purinton, the favorite tenor, sings that beautifully illustrated song, "My Own Wild Western Rose," and the Staroscope shows a fine set of pictures, "The Green Goods Men." All theatre goers should not miss the excellent bill at the Star this week.

Final Meeting.—The final meeting of the Order of the Eastern Star for the summer was held last Monday night, at which time four candidates were admitted to membership. After the regular meeting those present enjoyed a sumptuous banquet.

Trouble All Around.—There was quite an exciting time in the lower bay fishing grounds yesterday morning when two boats were seen to capsize, and another was waving signals of distress of some sort, and the fleet was kept busy for a while picking up men and gear and oars. Captain Stuart and his good men from the life-saving station at Fort Canby went to the relief of one outfit and saved the men, and a neighboring fishboat went after the second crew, and all were saved; but just what was the matter with the third outfit, cannot be ascertained. There would be one of two things to record of the fishing fleet down there if it were not for the life-saving stations in that neighborhood. Either there would be less recklessness on the part of the fishermen on account of the nearness of the stations now, or there would be a long roll of disasters to report constantly. The fishermen are a brave lot anyhow, and the fact that the life-savers are there to make quick and invariably successful efforts at picking them up, renders them a bit more daring than they might be otherwise, and it is not exactly fair to the government men, hardy and willing as they are at all times. There should be some regard paid to the conditions besetting the fishermen, for when one boat goes over, the same sea is apt to catch one or more of the others, and the life-men cannot handle but one case at a time. The whole outfit, fishers of fish, and fishers of men, are a game lot, anyway, and it is their peculiar province to risk a good deal, and they will probably keep it up.

Resumes Today.—The county court will resume its sessions today, and make final disposition of the pending business before it.

Far Better Off.—Word was received at the county court house yesterday advising the officers here of the death of Charles Hoffman, an inmate of the Oregon Asylum for the Insane, at Salem. Hoffman went from this county under commitment on February 23, 1881, and died on June 23, last.

Entertainment Thursday.—A very pretty entertainment will be given by a number of young girls at the Salvatio Army hall, Thursday evening. The program will consist of Indian club, United States flag, tambourine and hoop drills, illustrated songs, recitations, solos, living Bible pictures, etc. There will also be the representation of many different nations, by the girls, in native costume. Increased Capacity.—The new plans for Fishers' opera house were shown yesterday and they indicate an appreciable increase in the seating capacity, the new draft giving 948 seats, and they are to be 20 inches by 30 inches in size, which fact bespeaks the positive comfort of the patrons of the new house.

Issue Challenge.—The members of the Warrenton baseball team have issued a challenge to the Shamrocks of this city to play a game of baseball for $100 or $200 a side. The result of Sunday's game was unsatisfactory to both sides. The challenge specifies that the game shall be played on neutral grounds with a neutral umpire.

The services were under the auspices of the Scandinavian Benevolent Society. The interment was in Greenwood cemetery. The deceased was a native of Stavanger, Norway.

Body Found.—The remains of the late Charles Isakson, who was drowned by the capsizing of his fishing boat a few weeks ago at the mouth of the Columbia river, were found on the beach at Shoalwater Bay near Bay Centre yesterday. Coroner Pohl left last night for the place, and will return today with the body. The funeral will probably be held tomorrow under the auspices of the Finnish Brotherhood.

After the Corpse.—Coroner W. C. A. Pohl, of this county, accompanied by E. Gustafsen, a friend of the deceased, left yesterday morning for Bay Center, Washington, after the body of Charles Isaacson whose body drifted in there a few days ago and was buried. He will be disinterred and brought here for burial by his friends. He lost his life by the overturning of his boat on the Columbia river bar about two weeks ago. They will be home today. The Finnish Brotherhood will pay him final honors.

In Astoria Yesterday.—C. D. Howell and G. N. Howell of the Howell Shingle Company arrived here yesterday from Portland and went to Chinook to look after their interests, returning in the evening, and leaving for their mills at Skamokawa. At the present time they state that the shingle mill is tied up on account of a strike by the mill hands made in sympathy with the striking shingle men on Puget Sound. The strike, which was called by the union leaders, was not entirely approved of by the shinglemen at Skamokawa, and there is a report current that they will shortly go back to work, notwithstanding the order of the union leaders.

Under Quarantine.—City Physician Mohr has quarantined the residence of Captain and Mrs. Arthur Leighton at 370 Fifteenth street as their small son is afflicted with a light attack of measles.

In The Circuit Court.—There was but little doing in the Hon. Circuit Court yesterday, before Judge McBride, the only cases reaching his notice being as follows: In the case of Mabel Turner vs. William Turner an order was entered overruling the demurrer. And that in the matter of Preston Hill vs. George Malar, judgment as prayed for was made and entered.

BELGRADE, June 26.—The five regicides who have been retired from the Serbian army "at their own request," says the official announcement, will receive double pay as a pension.

They have no longer any right to wear uniform, so that their separation from the army is absolute.

It is stated that Great Britain has promised, through the mediation of the Italian government, that a British diplomatic representative would be sent to Belgrade. Now that the retirement of these officials has been effected, the officials themselves are said to be amply satisfied with the increase in pay.

FRIENDLY DEMONSTRATION.

British Fleet Will Visit Kronstadt As Complement to Russian People.

London, June 26.—The Tribune is conducting a strong agitation against the dispatch of a British fleet to Cronstadt, arguing that fraternization with divided Russia would court misunderstandings and that no real entente is possible until the British government is able to deal with a cabinet representing the Russian people. It is understood that the foreign office considers that the Cronstadt arrangement has gone too far to permit of cancellation. A large number of members of the house of commons, however, desire that it should be made perfectly clear that the naval visit is a compliment offered to the Russian people and not to the Russian government. Charles Phillips Trevelyn, liberal, as representing the view, had a question on the matter which at Foreign Secretary Grey's request was postponed until today. Discussion of the foreign office votes which is fixed for July 7, also is expected to give Secretary Gray an opportunity to fully explain the government's attitude on the question.

ONE FOR ALL AND ALL FOR ASTORIA

Astoria's New and Modern HOTEL!

Mr. Astoria Man: Did you ever figure how many thousand capitalists visit the Pacific Coast without coming to Astoria? WHY?

If only 100 investors came to Astoria during each year and only one or two of them invested, would we all be benefitted?

YOU BET!

Would it injure the restaurants and lodging houses now here if the tourists who now stay away would come to Astoria?

NOT MUCH!

We cannot have a hotel in front of every lot. But every lot will be benefitted by a FINE HOTEL.

Have you the nerve to invite your influential friends to visit Astoria now? Where will they stop in Astoria? Opportunity knocks but once—other knockers please copy. You can't go ahead by sitting still. Respectfully,
THE NEW HOTEL COMMITTEE.
